

Design methods

1. Connecting the city fabric to the river through pedestrian streets

2. Integrating important public spaces into the river space

3. Creating new river spaces as a continuous public space along the river

