

Studio São Paulo

is a joint venture between five Dutch urbanism offices and architecture firms and municipal agencies in São Paulo. Studio São Paulo combines knowledge of both sides of the Atlantic. The unbridled growth of the city and the economic boom pose both numerous urban challenges and opportunities to São Paulo. The Studio explores five different cases to pose fundamental questions about the role of the architect and the urban planner and designer in the contemporary city.

New Conditions for Urbanism | A Brave New São Paulo

Capita Selecta lecture, Thursday 24 October 2011, 20h00, Waterlooplein 213 Amsterdam, admission free.